

Driving instructions from the airport

- From the airport exit road, follow the road for 1km until the T-junction. Turn left, towards Lassi and Argostoli.
- Drive through Lassi which is lined with restaurants and bars.
- Follow the hill up and then down towards Argostoli. Drive slowly down the hill so that you don't miss the very sharp right turning, opposite the Hotel Loukas on the left.
- Continue down this road, past the hospital on the left, which leads to a junction with the main road out of Argostoli. Turn Right.
- Continue until you reach the traffic lights and take the left hand turn at the traffic lights to Fiscardo.
- Follow the road around the lagoon, looping past the old Drapano bridge. This will link you up with the main coastal road to Fiscardo.
- You will continue on this road for almost about 50km; follow the signs for Fiscardo at any junctions.
- Pass the turn-off for the village of Assos, which will be on your left hand side and continue along the coast with the sea on you left.
- Thirteen kilometres before reaching Fiskardo, when passing the villages of Assos, Vassilikades, Konidarata, Ventourata you will see a village sign for "Maganos". Take the first turning right which is approximately 100 metres after the sign (opposite a white and green house) and then right again.
- You will see another sign for Fiscardo, follow this and continue past the road for Katsarata on your left until you reach Matsoukata (there is no village sign, but these are the first group of houses you will come across on this road.
- Continue on down the hill until you reach a yellow sign for Bazukata (in Greek – see below) – this is 1.8km from Maganos.

- Take the very sharp right hand turn to Bazukata and continue down the hill past the ruin on your right and the new villas on your left.
- The Summer House is on your left and the parking area is at the top to the rear of the house.
